Firestar x reader fanfic

XXX <---- this means your warrior name.

You started walking with Firestar close to you and the time you and Firestar met you fell in love.You both come to the gorse tunnel leading out into the forest to hunt.You look at the ginger Leader and you remember the first day you met Firestar.

It was many moons ago. You were eating a vole near the apprentice den then you hear the former leader bluestar calling out to the clan. You come over and see a ginger cat almost the same age as you being apprenticed . You never seen him ever before then you realize that he was wearing a collar hes a kittypet! He comes down and immediately Longtail went to attack him. I tried to stop him but my mentor kept me back so I just shut my eyes until it was over.When it was over I opened my eyes to see what happened and I saw Firepaw sitting there with his collar which was broken in front of him.

You snap out of the flashback and look at Firestar again and he looks back and smiled you turn back and he turned back as well as you and Firestar head out to hunt.

"Are you ok XXX?You seem not focused,"Firestar asked.

"Oh um I'm fine don't you worry about me,"XXX Mewed.

"Alright then. Let's head back to camp I think we got enough prey to last us about two sunrises,"Firestar mumbled since his mouth wasso full of prey. So we headed back to thunder clan camp to put the prey on the fresh kill pile and rest.

The next sunup

I wake up to someone stroking my back with their nose. I see Firestar at the entrance about to stroke my back some more. "Oh your awake,"Firestar whispered.

"Of course I'm awake since you stroking my back with your nose,"I replied.

"Come on let's head out into the clearing and get some fresh kill,"and we walked out to the fresh kill pile.

"Firestar?,"I called.

"Yes?,"Firestar looked up from his vole.

"If we ever have kits would you want them or it to be a beautiful she-cat or a handsome tom?"

"Either one. After all, it is starclan's choice. But, if you ask hard enough, I bet starclan will listen."Firestar smiled.

"Oh Firestar ," I chuckled.

missing

"Alright XXX I'm just going to patrol the territory then come back for you okay?"Firestar asks.

"Okay Firestar. Hope no riverclan comes back to invade," I chuckled.

"I'll make sure that won't happen. I'll come back for you I promise, "Firestar said then padded with the other warriors into the tunnel then disappeared into the gorse.

I woke up then went to the fresh kill pile to eat. Then I noticed something, the warriors and Firestar didn't come back from the patrol.

That's odd they should be back by now I thought.

Then the warriors from the patrol came into the camp. I let out a sigh of relief and waited for Firestar to come out of the tunnel.

My heart starts to beat faster and then I start breathing faster.

where is he? Where is Firestar?!?!?

I immediately got up and quickly padded to the gorse tunnel and go though to find Firestar. I come out and quickly follow his scent.

I'm coming Firestar. I'm coming.

Oh no

I was running helplessly trying to find Firestar and then I saw it. Firestar's tracks. I rushed to follow the tracks as fast as I can. I past trees, jumped streams, and climbed rocks just to find him. I followed his so far that I don't even know where I am.

I'm lost.

But I didn't give up yet. I kept rushing and followed the tracks until I saw it.

Blood

Blood and claw marks everywhere. All I saw in myself was defeat. How could I just let him go like that? I should've went with him and stayed with at all ti--

"XXX what are you doing here?"My thoughts were cut off by a tom's voice. I looked up and saw him.

Firestar

I pounced at him and pinned him to the ground." Don't you dare scare me like that ever again,"I hissed. Then I became soft and let out a purr.

"Okay okay but I only hunting alone you know having some quiet time,"Firestar got up and we both went back to the camp.

Before the gathering

"I'm going to get some food okay XXX?" Firestar asked.

"Okay Firestar," I sigh and lay down for a bit.

~~~~~~~

"XXX," Yellowfang tapped my head.

"Uhh what?" I sat up.

"Can I talk to you for one second please?"  Yellowfang asked.

"Sure," I followed Yellowfang to the medicine cat's den.

"Okay I've been observing you for a bit and I noticed some simptoms that wouldn't normally happen to healthy and normal cats," Yellowfang explained.

"Am I sick?!?!" you panic a little.

"No, no not that," Yellowfang mewed.

"Then what is it?" You ask

"You're having kits."
~~~~~~~

Happiness floods through the clan

"What?" you feel in shock.

"Its true and to the look of it they should seem healthy seeing you never catch any sickness," For the first time Yellowfang actually smiled for once.

"What's true?" Firestar's head poked into the medicine cat den.

"I'm expecting Firestar!" you mewed happily. Then after that all I hear in the background is everyone running around and announcing that I'm having kits.

" Really? I'm so happy for you!" Firestar mewed happily looking like he's about to leap for joy.

"The clan must be happy for you as well," Yellowfang went to sorting her herbs.

"Well then there is no need to announce it to the clan when everyone knows by now," Firestar mewed.

"Well all you need now is rest and eat and you're fine but if you do feel like you have something coming on then you know where to find me," Yellowfang mewed.

You nod to Yellowfang and head out with Firestar by your side.

Names

You and Firestar leave the medicine cat den then went over to the fresh-kill pile to grab something to eat.

"Oh Firestar what are we going to name them?" you ask while you sit down to take a bite of fresh kill.

"I really haven't decided yet but do you have any suggestions?" Firestar took a bite down on the squirrel.

"I don't think I have any names that were thought out before-hand," you also take a bite.

"Well we have to think of one soon, " Firestar purred.

"Hmmm..."

(A/N) Hey guys so I need some names for the kits before they come! So please in the comments, suggest about three to four names pleasze and thank you

The Day of the Gathering

"XXX are okay enough to go to the gathering?" Firestar asked.

"Of course I'm fine don't you worry about me,"you licked behind Firestar's ear for reassurance.

"Alright then let's go,"Firestar flicked his tail then went through the tunnel. Then you and the rest of the patrol followed.

You pad along side Firestar as you go to the high rocks.

As you get there, you find that riverclan is already here. As the patrol settles down you see Firestar leaping up to one of the rocks.

Later on the other two clans came and the leaders joined Firestar and Leopardstar on the high rocks.

You try to listen to the other clan leaders but you're too distracted of keeping the apprentices quiet.

Then you see Firestar step up to say something.

"Our clan is very strong with many warriors and a stable amount of apprentices,"he mews. "Our clan is growing as well with XXX having kits."
Many yowls from our clan came into hearing. You sit your back straight proudly as they yowl your name.

Two moons later

Two moons later you're in the nursery, sleeping, and your stomach is bigger than ever and soon you'll have kits. Firestar pokes his head in daily seeing if you're alright and gets you fresh kill.

"XXX are you awake?" Firestar pokes his head in for the morning.

"I am now,"You mew.

"Any pain lately?" Firestar ask.

"Just a little, but nothing I can't handle,"you mew.

"You hungry?"

"A Bit,"

"Alright I'm going to get some fresh kill for you," And Firestar backed out of the nursery to grab some fresh kill.

You look down at your stomach. You kits are going to be great warriors... or medicine cats. Still, once you kit come out, you kits are going to be big and strong later on. You pretend to talk to the kits.

"I'm back, " Firestar pokes in his head and drops a squirrel in front of you. You thank Firestar for all the thing he has done for you.

"Anything for you. If you need anything else just call," Firestar backed away once again while you rest.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

You wake up feeling pain that is stronger than the others that you had. You yowl in pain while in a short moments Yellowfang and Firestar appear in the nursery.
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

"She's having kits!" Firestar mew in happiness with slight panic.

"You think I don't know that? Cinderpaw get a stick, and—-"

"Got it," Cinderpaw was about to pad off.

"Wait I need you to get—"

"I know what to get," Cinderpaw padded off. Cinderpaw came back with a stick, and a leaf.

"Bite on this," Yellowfang gave the stick to you and you bit on it while you push.

"Okay breathe, it's going to be okay," Yellowfang mewed.

I've never seen Yellowfang so reassuring you thought.

You yowl in pain while on of the kits slide out.

"It's a tom!" Cinderpaw then took the kit and started to lick the kit rapidly the wrong way to give it warmth.

You yowl louder as another kit comes out.

"It's a she-kit!" Firestar then took the kit and followed what Cinderpaw was doing.

You think it's the last one until another one comes. You yowl louder and push until the last kit slides out.

"It's another she-kit!" You take the kit and follow what Firestar was doing.

You see the tom started to mew and Cinderpaw letting it down. The she-kit that Firestar was holding opened her eyes and mewed to her father.

"Welcome to Thunderclan little one," Firestar mewed happily and set her down.

The she-kit that you were holding opened her eyes andopened her mouth wide to yawn.You set her down with her siblings to suckle.

"What are their names?" Cinderpaw asked.

"Lets see the tom's name is Foxkit, the she-kit with Firestar's bright ginger fur is Sunkit, and that she-kit over there is Finchkit," You mew proudly.

"Once you three get older, you three are going to be the strongest warriors, or the best medicine cats any cat has ever seen," Firestar mewed.

Rest to the clan

"XXX.....XXX..." A voice called out to you. You open your eyes and you find Bluestar in front of you in a forest with fresh grass.

"Bluestar! What brings you here?" You confused how Bluestar got here instead of Yellowfang or Firestar.

"I need to inform you about something," Bluestar mewed.

"About what?"

"A prophecy about your kits,"You freeze in surprise.

"Why didn't you tell Firestar?" you ask.

"Because he already knew a long time ago and that is why he always wanted to know you're okay so that the kits would grow up to be healthy."

"Why didn't he tell me yet?" You ask again.

"He was waiting for the right moment but then again he was afraid,"

"Afraid of what?"

"Afraid about the kits," Bluestar mewed. " Now can we talk about that prophecy now?"

"But of course," You mew. Bluestar disappears which makes you confused because you thought that bluestar was going to tell you the prophecy but then you hear voices mewing to you.

After the fire, a new age will come followed with a new evil. Only the rising sun, the wise fox and the quick finch will have great power.

"Are you talking about my kits?" You ask but no one answers. "Bluestar where are you... Bluestar." You open your eyes and find yourself back in the nursary and you find with Foxkit, Sunkit, and Finchkit there with you suckling. A snout appeared through the entrance then Firestar pokes in.

"How are they?" Firestar asked.

"They're fine. Firestar, why didn't you tell me about the prophecy about our kits?" You ask.

"Wait, how do you know?"

"Bluestar sent me the prophecy,"

"Oh well I was waiting for the right time to tell you I was just worried about our kits,"

"Oh yeah, Bluestar told me that too,"

"Then why did you ask?"

"No reason."

Author's Note

Hey guys. So this is going to be short. Okay, you guys all know that the 'rest to the clan' part is the last part to this story but don't be sad because I'm making a sequel and fun fact, this is going to be my first sequel that I'm writing so there is a first for everything. The Sequal if you're wondering is called 'Three May Go On' but, it's pretty obvious to spot already. Thank you guys for being here and reading this book as I go along and I'll find you in the sequel and yeah.

Also thank you for 2 thousand reads I remember coming into school and cheering because I got one hundred reads but now we have 2 thousand. I couldn't have done it without you guys with me. I know it's sappy but it's true so thank you again.
